

AP Psychology Summer Assignment 2020

Please join our summer Google classroom using code 67fynkh. Complete and submit Part I via google classroom & share Part II with me via google docs. Submit both Part I and Part II by August 24th, 2020 (3:00 pm).

Part I: Psychology Content Exposure

1. Watch the "History of Psychology Lecture" which you can find on our google classroom.
2. Use the lecture to complete the "History of Psychology Notes" google doc. Make sure you save these notes, because we will use this information for our first few classes.
3. Complete the "History of Psychology Lecture Check" on google classroom.
4. Grading: The lecture check is worth 20 points (formative).

Part II: Research study reading analyses

1. Please get access to a USED copy (or find online versions) of Forty Studies that Changed Psychology (4th, 5th, 6th, or 7th editions) by Roger Hock. Please do NOT spend money for a new one. You can find used copies for about $6. If you want to pool resources and share copies, that's fine. You do NOT have to own your own as long as you can access one over the summer. Sadly, Baltimore County Public Libraries do not own any.

2. Please read any FOUR studies but each must come from a DIFFERENT chapter (each chapter deals with a different theoretical perspective).

3. Submit your analysis of the studies by sharing via google docs with dijanaismic@gfs.org Your responses should be about 1-2 paragraphs. You must answer all of the questions below in detail. PLEASE LABEL THE TITLE OF EACH STUDY.

- a. Who was the researcher and what aspect of human behavior was he interested in?
 - b. Summarize the methods used in the study
 - c. Summarize the results of the study.
 - d. Discuss ONE example of the significance of the study or ONE criticism directed toward the research.
 - e. What did you learn? How did this study improve your understanding of psychology? Explain.
- Grading: Your responses will be graded on clarity of thought, quality of ideas, and completeness (Do your comments reflect a thorough reading of the article? Did you address all of the questions asked above?). You will need to write in complete sentences for each of the above questions. Remember to submit your anal
 - Formative: 40 points
